10th LARES International Conference

September 15-17, 2010

Brazilian British Center - São Paulo, Brazil

WELCOME TO SÃO PAULO!

The Latin American Real Estate Society has the pleasure to invite all ERES Conference participants to our 10th conference, which will be held at the Brazilian British Center in São Paulo. As the main event of LARES, the annual international conference is an ideal environment where market professionals, researchers and academics can meet to share information at a high level, and give visibility to their research.

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPATION

Practitioners and researchers who wish to contribute are invited to submit a summary of their work, according to the themes of the conference, observing the following:

- Abstracts and full papers should be sent through the LARES Conferences Management System.
- Abstracts and full papers can be prepared in Portuguese, Spanish or English.
- For submissions in Portuguese or Spanish, it is also required an English version of the abstract.
- Only original papers relating to at least one of the conference themes will be accepted.
- All entries submitted will be evaluated by peers, and the acceptance will be given according to reviewer's recommendation, registration status of the authors, and the opinion of the scientific committee.
- There will be translation services available during the conference (English and Spanish, as needed) .

To submit your work, please go to: www.lares.org.br/2010 and follow the submission instructions.

PLENARY SESSIONS

Two special plenary sessions are planned, with the participation of national and international keynote speakers.

Sept. 16th: World Cup 2014: Challenges and Opportunities for Brazilian Real Estate
