As part of the Kingdom's 2030 Vision, the Diriyah Gate Development Authority (DGDA) is transforming Diriyah into what will become the world's largest cultural and heritage destination. A USD 63.2Bn cultural and lifestyle development, inspired by the timeless Najdi architecture of At-Turaif, Diriyah is the ancestral home of the Royal Family of Al Saud, the birthplace of the Kingdom, on completion, Diriyah will become Saudi's premier lifestyle destination to visit, live, work, shop, dine and celebrate the wonder of the Kingdom's rich heritage and culture. Diriyah is strategically located 15-minutes drive north-west of the center of the Saudi capital Riyadh, and 25 minutes drive from King Khalid International Airport, making it highly accessible to greater Saudi as well as regional and global cities. Along with the transformation of Diriyah, several infrastructure and Beautification projects are underway to better connect and enhance quality-of-life for the people of Riyadh.
